Santa Barbara Vacation Rentals Welcome Parents, Family and Friends to Local Commencement Ceremonies

While offering all the conveniences of home for guests during graduation week, Santa Barbara vacation rentals provide a value-packed alternative to hotel rooms — offering greater comfort, luxury, and flexibility for a fraction of the cost.

SANTA BARBARA, CA – Spring is upon us and graduation season is just around the corner. Whether visitors are attending commencement ceremonies in late May or mid-June, now is the time to plan where to stay during graduation week.

According to Graham Farrar, an owner of Santa Barbara Luxury Rentals, Santa Barbara vacation rental homes are a cost-efficient alternative to staying in traditional hotel accommodations. Instead of paying $300 a night per hotel room, families and friends can enjoy the comfort and convenience of staying under one roof for a fraction of the cost – while also taking advantage of greater amenities and flexibility.

“Staying at a vacation rental in Santa Barbara offers great value because you get more for your money—affordability plus comfort, luxury, and convenience to make your entire family feel right at home,” said Farrar, whose company provides a variety of high-end vacation rentals in Santa Barbara. “Since our vacation home rentals are roomy and full-furnished, guests can enjoy celebrating in their own private space or using it as a central meeting point when they’re not out sightseeing or celebrating out on the town.”

Farrar adds that many Santa Barbara vacation rental guests also enjoy making the most out of graduation weekend by living like a local and enjoying all the conveniences of home. And in addition to avoiding the hassle and crowds of conventional hotel accommodations, guests also enjoy the convenience of being centrally located within walking distance of popular venues and activities

“We rented the Anacapa penthouse for our daughter's graduation from UCSB after first considering multiple B & B rooms,” said Cynthia Gregory of San Diego, CA. “We will definitely visit the Anacapa penthouse again! My only regret is we didn't find it until our daughter's senior year. We spent too much money on hotels over 4 years that didn't compare to the villa!”
