Santa Barbara Vacation Rentals Reveals Top Things to be Thankful For in 2010

As travelers look ahead to 2011 and a slowly rebounding economy, many are grateful to be able to afford to travel at all, and vacationers continue to take advantage of the great value offered by Santa Barbara Luxury Rentals.

SANTA BARBARA, CA – As 2010 draws to a close, many people will be reflecting on the past year and its challenges and triumphs. For many travelers, this may include gratitude for lost luggage found, for GPS technology on road trips, or free Wi-Fi at a destination. According to vacation rental expert Graham Farrar, as travelers look ahead to 2011 and a slowly rebounding economy, many travelers are truly grateful that they can afford to travel at all.

“There are a lot of opportunities for travelers to stretch their vacation dollar in Santa Barbara,” said Farrar, co-owner of Santa Barbara Luxury Rentals, a company that provides a variety of high-end Santa Barbara vacation rentals. “As the economy is recovering, vacationers continue to take advantage of vacation rentals in Santa Barbara that offer great value and flexibility to better fit various travel lifestyles, needs and budgets.”

Farrar notes that for less than the cost of a hotel room, vacationers can rent a whole Santa Barbara vacation home while enjoying countless benefits – like avoiding the unnecessary expenses of a hotel stay like laundry, internet fees, tips, and room service.

In addition to exceptional value, Santa Barbara vacation rental guests have much to be thankful for including temperate climate year-round, as well as the area’s stunning nature and architecture plus world-class events and festivals that are held locally.

“My family and I feel so privileged to live in such an extraordinary and unique destination, and in the spirit of the holidays, we wanted to take the opportunity to share some of the things we’re most grateful for in Santa Barbara,” Farrar said. “We also hope that once travelers experience all that our fair city has to offer, they’ll be grateful too that they will always have a second home away from home when they visit Santa Barbara.”
